What Happened This Month

The Tell It Like It Is group celebrated its second anniversary of becoming a Big Book study group with a workshop and eating speaker meeting June 28. Chris R. of Dallas, TX visited the group, and led the workshop. He shared his story, then discussed how to take a newcomer through the steps quickly and finished with a discussion on sponsorship. More than 50 people attended, including some from Lafayette, LA, Gautier, MS, and Mobile, AL.

Spring Roundup's planning committee moved forward rapidly to organize next year's convention. An outstanding speaker lineup was chosen, including AA's Karl S. of New Orleans, Shirley T. of West Blocton, AL, Kelvin D. of Fargo, ND and Liz B. of Hollis, NY. The theme for next year's event will be "Design for Living." Spring Roundup will return to its traditional dates on Memorial Day weekend, May 22-24, 2009, at the new location of the Greater Covington Center.
